

IAB meeting notes for the August 6, 2010 meeting held the Marriott Hotel in Covington, KY.

At 2pm, Chairman Henry Kessler welcomed ten IAB members and twenty-nine guests, a record number for an IAB meeting. Jim Lubic, AWCI's executive director, addressed the group. Jim spoke of AWCI's mission, its ongoing progress, and its goals for the future. He focused upon AWCI's commitment to continuing education and certification as he outlined some of AWCI's educational needs. He encouraged the IAB members to support these programs.

After Jim spoke, Chairman Henry Kessler opened the meeting to members and guests to participate in a free ranging discussion of the IAB's role in support of the watch and clock making industry. The IAB members listened intently to the numerous suggestions and comments made by the guests and the IAB members.

No official business was transacted at this meeting other than to unanimously reelect Henry Kessler as IAB chairman for the 2010-11 business year. The meeting was adjourned at 5pm.

Meeting notes were submitted by Jack Kurdzionak, IAB member.
